

The band have recently purchased new waistcoats and have had new ties donated and we will publish photographs and an update on this soon. In the meantime, Ann Pascoe, 2nd trombone can be seen modelling the new hats we are looking at buying to keep the sun of the players heads. Please let Ann know your opinion on the hat and whether they should be issued to everyone.

